The Staff Presents

The Journalism class of North Intermediate proudly presents the 1970 yearbook.

We would like to thank Mr. Byron, Mr. Gerber and the faculty for helping us.

Our special thanks goes to Mrs. Staehle, our teacher, for her guidance.

Ass't. Editor
Rhonda Farrell

FIRST ROW: S. White, G. White, S. Albrecht, L. Durkacy, D. Burt, K. Kaleyta, SECOND ROW: R. Farrell, G. Kennedy, K. Clothier, D. Mitchell, G. Teplinski, B. Rapphun, THIRD ROW: P. Hauffe, P. McCullen, C. Samera, M. Webb, C. Dawson, V. Jean, Mrs. Staehle.

Irma Hausler

This year we proudly dedicate the 1970 yearbook to Irma Hausler.

She first walked through the doors of the sewing room in 1946. Since then she has taught wonders to many Northern Lights not only in sewing but also in English.

In Memoriam

Eleanor Pollard Volk first entered the Saginaw School System in 1939 as an English teacher at Arthur Hill High School. In March of 1940 she left teaching to return twenty years later as a first grade teacher. In 1963 Mrs. Volk was appointed as principal to North Elementary School. This position she retained until her death in 1969.

We shall miss this kind and loving person.

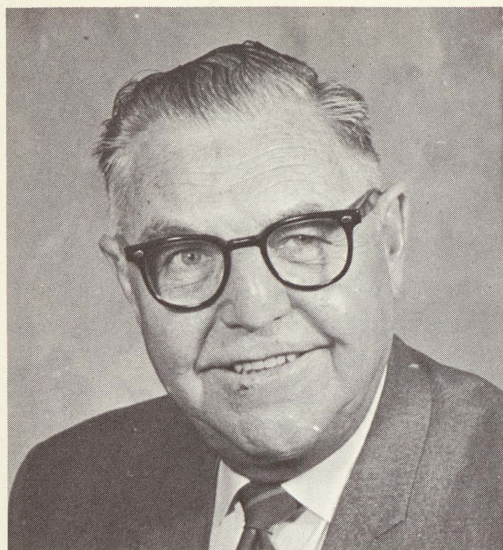

Northites, I would like you to meet the Superintendent of Saginaw Public Schools, Dr. Jack Taylor.

In Ohio, where Dr. Taylor gained his knowledge of school administration, he was superintendent of Zenia and Crestline Public Schools. His experience also includes principalships of other schools.

SEATED: Mr. Jack Taylor, Mrs. Dorothy Beck, Mr. Rubin Daniels, STANDING: Dr. John Goossell, Mr. Harold Karls, Mr. Phillip Lang, Mr. Joesph Oeming, and Mr. Walter C. Averill.

Yearbooks come and yearbooks go, but we always look forward to the new publication of the year as the best annual ever.

Your annual is part of your life at North Intermediate School. As you go through life and school, this is part of your history.

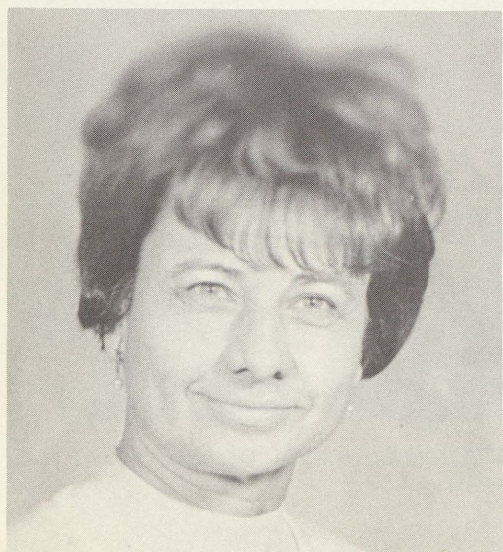

We hope in the future you'll have many fond memories of North and you can refer to your annual often.

Floyd E. Byron
Principal

Your education, your school, your friends and your recollection of good times at North School will become more valuable with time. Your parents and teachers have done their best to see that you receive, and continue to receive, the best possible education. I have enjoyed being part of this valuable experience.

Your application of skills and values learned here at North School will assist you the rest of your life. Best wishes to all and a warmhearted farewell to our departing 9th graders.

Herbert E. Gerber
Assistant Principal

You spend more time in school than anyplace except your home. What you accomplish in school depends largely on the effort you put forth. School provides you the opportunity to develop skills and habits which can prepare you for a good life as an adult. You can work hard in school and still have plenty of time for play or recreation. You cannot wait until you are 21 to attain the skills you used, but must discipline yourself in every grade. Remember that what you are tomorrow (the future) depends on what you do today. (and everyday).

Oneta Anderson
Elementary Principal
North School

Miss Arnold helps Margaret Yeager as she has helped many Northites.

Mr. Wickstrom, Miss Arnold and Officer Bain all keep our school going.

Officer Bain heads the juvenile department and Mr. Wickstrom and Miss Arnold work in the Guidance Office.

We are hoping they will be here for many more years. We also hope they will be helping many more students.

In spite of all his work Mr. Wickstrom still has a laugh now and then.

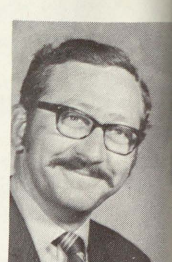

Officer Bain as Mr. Wickstrom and Miss Arnold has helped the student body of North.

FLAG BOYS

Did you know who put up our flag everyday rain or shine? Well, John Mc-Million and John Steele do a great job of it. Thank you.

STAGE HANDS

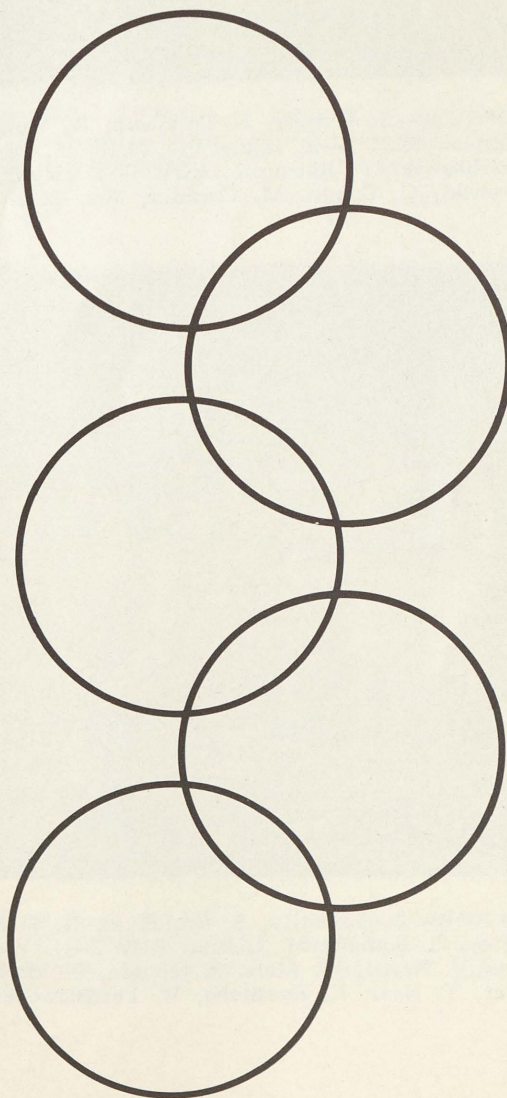

Who opens the curtains, works the lights, sets up the microphones and operates the spot lights in all of our assemblies? Of course the stage hands. They are Steve Coutz and Richard Urbain.

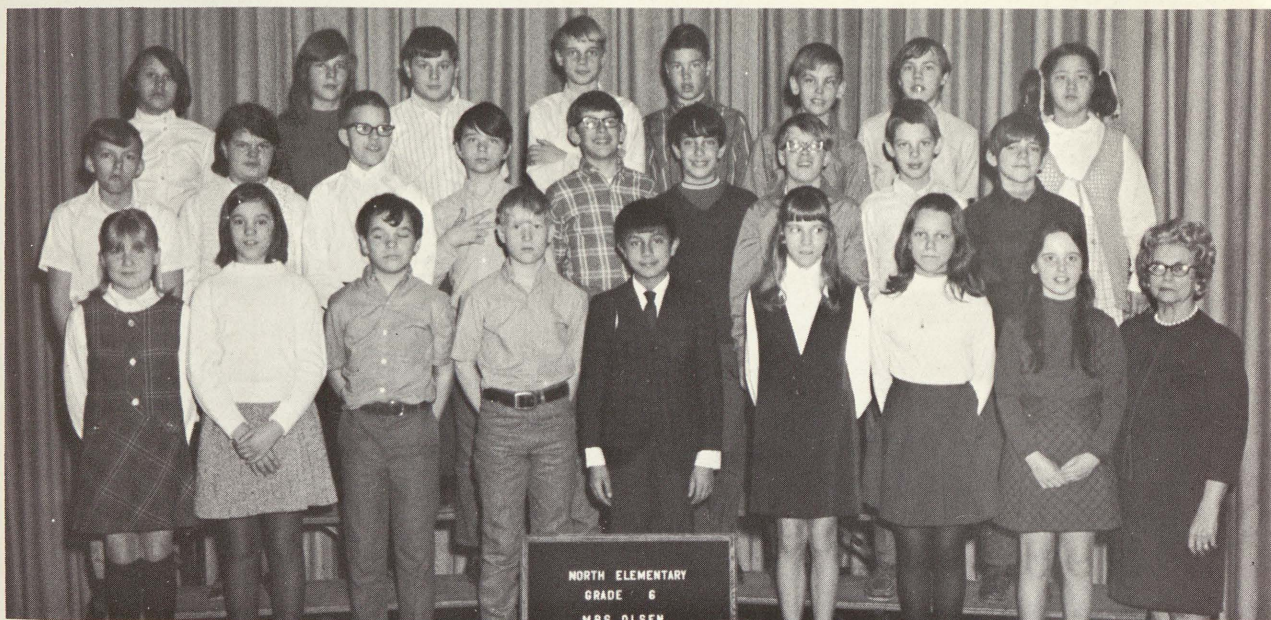

PROJECTOR CREW

Did you know that Lyle Miller and Jim Kinney take care of our school projectors?
